PRESS RELEASE

On Friday, February 19 at 7:53 a.m., the Sioux County Sheriff's Office arrested Jose Rodriguez-Cruz, age 28, of Hull, IA for Identity theft, forgery, no driver's license and no insurance.

The arrest occurred after a traffic stop, two miles south of Hull on Hickory Ave. for a traffic offense. Upon further investigation it was found that Rodriguez-Cruz did not have a valid driver's license. It was also discovered that he had been working illegally for Ysselstein Dairy of rural Rock Valley, IA. The investigation revealed Rodriguez-Cruz had been using the social security number of an eight year old child to get employment.

Identity Theft and Forgery are both class D felonies. Driving without a license and no insurance are both simple misdemeanors.
