PRESS RELEASE

5/9/2017, 8:00 pm

On Tuesday, May 9, at 9:18 a.m., the Ireton Fire Department responded to a report of a structure fire that occurred at 2128 440th Street, four and one-half miles northwest of Ireton, IA.

Upon arriving at the property, the fire department discovered a hay shed was burning.

Responding fire departments were able to extinguish the fire and prevent the fire from spreading to other buildings on the property.

No injuries were reported.

The cause of the fire is believed to be due to a fire in a nearby burn pit that ignited hay that was stored in the shed.

The Ireton Fire Department was assisted by the Hawarden Fire Department, Sioux Center Fire Department, Ireton Ambulance and the Sioux County Sheriff's Office.
