PRESS RELEASE

1/9/18 4:00 pm

On Tuesday, January 9, at 9:37 a.m., the Sioux County Sheriff's Office investigated a theft that occurred from a farm property, three and one-half miles northeast of Sioux Center, IA.

Upon further investigation it was discovered that on Monday, January 8, two people came to the victim's residence to purchase a cattle trailer. One of the suspects identified himself as "Dick Wolfs" of Logan, IA, gave the victim a check for $6,000 and took the trailer. It was later found that the check was counterfeit and the name "Dick Wolfs" is a false name.

The suspects were driving a black or dark blue, four-door Dodge pickup with dual rear wheels and no license plates. The trailer is a Hillsboro brand aluminum 24' cattle trailer with blue pin stripes on the side with a large scratch and dent on the right.

If you have seen this pickup and trailer you are asked to contact the Sheriff's Office.
