PRESS RELEASE

12/28/18 9:00 am

On Wednesday, December 26, at 11:14 a.m., the Sioux County Sheriff's Office arrested Carlos Chavez, age 21, of Wakefield, NE, Alejandro Garcia, age 20, and Karen Saucedo, age 19, both of Wayne, NE.

The arrests stemmed from a report of a disturbance that occurred at 1621 Linden Street in Hull, IA.

Upon further investigation, deputies suspected illegal drugs were being used and sold in the residence. A search warrant for the residence was obtained and executed. Deputies discovered marijuana, Psilocybin mushrooms, THC wax, prescription pills, drug paraphernalia and a powder believed to be Ecstasy. A 10-year-old female was also present in the residence.

Saucedo was charged with child endangerment. Chavez was charged with possession of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia. Garcia was charged with possession of a controlled substance, possession of drug paraphernalia and child endangerment.

The child was not harmed and was released to her parents.

The case remains under investigation.
