PRESS RELEASE

3/19/18 11:00 am

On Friday, March 16, at 8:56 a.m., the Sioux County Sheriff's Office investigated a report of theft that occurred at a business, three and one-half miles north of Hawarden, IA

Upon further investigation, perpetrators(s) entered onto the business property and stole two vehicles. Both vehicles were abandoned by the suspects and located later that day.

On Monday, March 19, it was discovered that a white 2001 Ford F-350 utility truck was stolen from the same business sometime between Friday, March 16, at 7:20 p.m., and Saturday, March 17, at 6:30 a.m. This truck likely has one license plate attached to it; South Dakota number 62K921.

If you have any information about these crimes, you are asked to contact the Sheriff's Office.
