On Sunday, April 29, at 3:21 p.m., the Hull Fire Department responded to a report of stalk bales on fire at 2970 Indian Avenue, three miles NE of Hull, IA.

Upon further investigation, approximately 35 round corn stalk bales were burning and the fire had begun to spread to a nearby barn.

No injuries were reported.

The barn sustained approximately $3,000 in damage but was saved by the fire department from becoming completely destroyed.

The cause of the fire is believed to have started from hot exhaust from a nearby running tractor.
