LEADERSHIP CLASS VISIT

On Thursday, November 30, the Sioux County Sheriff's Office hosted the Unity Christian High School Leadership Class for a visit with its administrative team.

The administrative panel for this visit consisted of Sheriff Dan Altena, Chief Deputy Nate Huizenga, Captain Jamie Van Voorst, Lieutenant Jason Bergsma, School Resource Officer Deputy Waylon Pollema and Patrol Deputy Jessica Dorhout.

The students presented questions to the panel about leadership. They listened to different responses from each of the panel members on how they incorporate their leadership styles and experience into their jobs and use these practices every day.

Every year the Sheriff's Office hosts Mr. Wayne Dykstra's class as part of their leadership curriculum where the students have this opportunity to hear from different businesses and government agencies around the area about how various leadership styles are incorporated into employer-employee situations.

Capt. Jamie Van Voorst said, "We thoroughly enjoy and look forward to this class each year; the students present many great questions and it's the perfect opportunity for us to relay to them the value and importance we place on having a professional leadership system in our organization."
