Iowa Association of School Resource Officers (IASRO)

Deputy Pollema also has been serving on the Iowa Association of School Resource Officers (IASRO) board of directors since October of 2013.

IASRO is a valuable resource for all Iowa SROs, school officials, juvenile court officers, and county attorneys.

IASRO holds an annual summer safety conference as well as additional school based trainings throughout the year. IASRO strives to bring valuable school based training to Iowa each year to further enhance the educational environment for all schools and students.

Deputy Pollema works with other board members to help facilitate these trainings. IASRO also helps to fund additional training for Deputy Pollema with the National Association of School Resource Officers (NASRO).
