STUDENTS REWARDED FOR SAFETY

On Monday, May 22, SRO Deputy Waylon Pollema assisted the Iowa State Patrol's Public Resource Officer, Trooper Vince Kurtz, with the "I Got Caught" program. This program is being used to promote seat belt usage for teen drivers with the goal of reducing fatalities in the state of Iowa while also having a positive interaction with law enforcement.

Deputy Pollema and Trooper Kurtz waited in the parking lot of Western Christian High School and handed out certificates for free pizza and soft drinks provided by Casey's General Store for students who arrived at school using their seat belts.

Several students were rewarded for wearing their seat belts this morning. Deputy Pollema said, "It is always rewarding to have positive interaction with teens; Vince and I had a good time this morning handing out these certificates to the students"

Pictured with Deputy Pollema and Vince Kurtz are Morgan and Halle Andringa from Sanborn, IA, who were both rewarded for using their seat belts.

This was the second year that Deputy Pollema and Trooper Kurtz have worked together with this program.
